When the years pass and the memories become blurry, you'll be so thankful you created an album that allows you to reminisce about your wedding day. Yes, the online gallery is beautiful, but it's not until your album arrives at your front door that you really get to re-live your wedding day and night all over again. .

FROM: €1,290

EDITORIAL ALBUMS

The value of your wedding album isn't in its price—it's in what it holds.

Memories. So, for me the album is not just an add-on: it's the point. It's the way photographs should be enjoyed, not just living on your phone.

The quality of the materials and timeless design ensure that your album will stand the test of time, ready to be shared with your family as the years roll by.

Your album is custom-designed to reflect your unique story and style. I will handpick your images that tell the full narrative of your day, aiming to include little details like your vows throughout the pages.

The albums are offered in two sizes and can take up to 240 soft pages. After your wedding day, if you'd like to create an album, I'll share all the information with you, together with an album design for your to review and all of the details you'll need to create your very own album.

DO WE NEED A SECOND PHOTOGRAPHER?

When it comes to larger weddings, two sets of eyes absolutely make the difference to your wedding album. My second shooters and I work seamlessly together to offer extended coverage and a broader selection of images to couples typically with guests of 90+.

These photos to the right are examples of the benefits of having a second photographer - snapped just at the right moment, they can ensure all the details and impromptu moments are captured. A second photographer can be particularly beneficial if you have a large bridal party, or if you and your partner are preparing at two locations far apart.

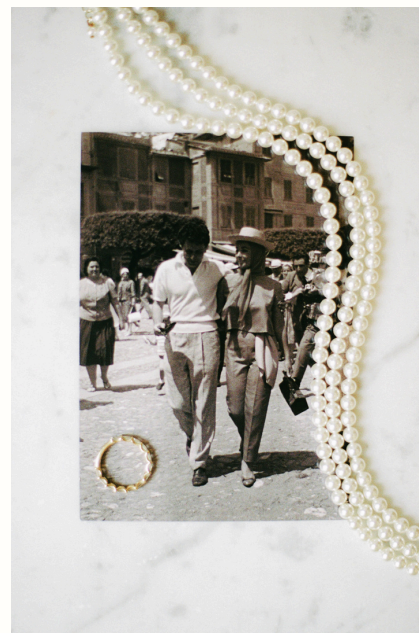

Additionally, having a second photographer is ideal during the ceremony to capture moments happening simultaneously—for instance, capturing the back of your dress as you walk down the aisle while also preserving the expression on your partner's face. No challenge is too difficult with two photographers, offering the advantage of two perspectives.

Most times, my second shooter will be my husband, Lorenzo, however if he's not available, I have a selection of professional photographers on hand.

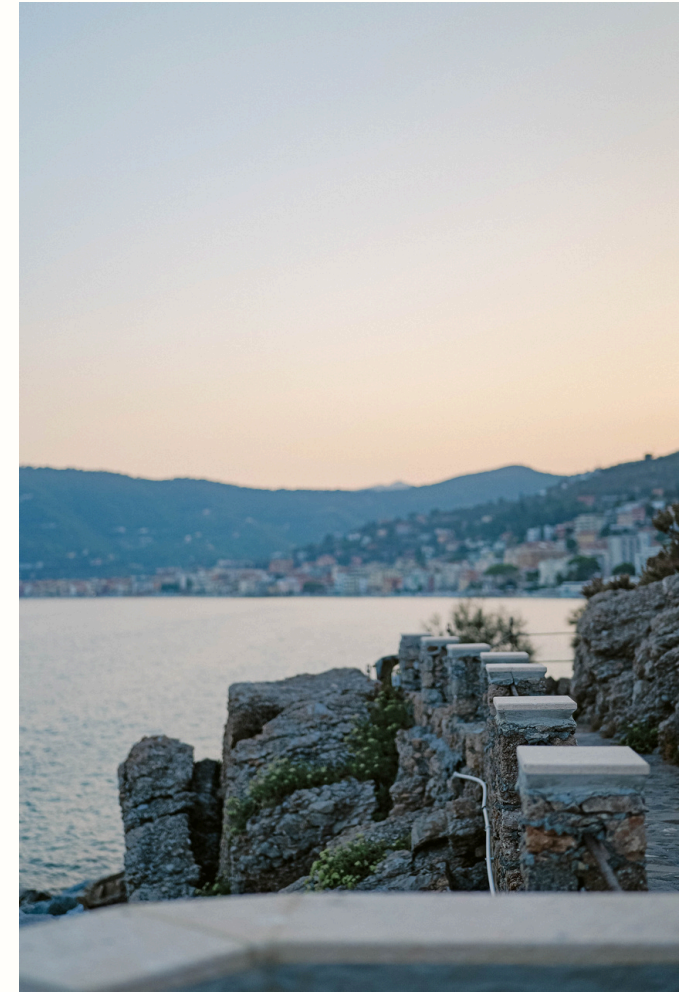

35MM FILM

There's something magical about film—the soft grain, the rich colors, the way each frame tells a deeper story. Adding 35mm film to your wedding day is like capturing emotions in their most raw and timeless form, preserving the romance of your celebration with an elegant, nostalgic touch.

I took these images moments before Lorenzo proposed to me, right where those two people are sitting in the left photo. We were sweating profusely after he convinced me to walk up here for the photo opportunity in 36 degree heat. I knew something was off... I turned around and the rest is a happy blur! I like to share this because one of my favourite parts about wedding photography is getting to know you and your story.

I can't wait to hear yours.

KIND WORDS

Daina, you are amazing. I'M FREAKING OUT!! We are absolutely in love with you and your work and cannot believe these photos. I'm at a loss for words.

You are the most beautiful person and your work reflects that - my mum and I were in tears this morning over having you in that room with us, it just meant everything. I'll never forget the little things, like taking my gum and helping me with my dress. We really needed your presence.

Thank you so so much, the photos are just incredible. I don't even know what to say. Thank you!!

FAQS

WHERE ARE YOU BASED?

I'm based just 10 minutes from the Italian border in Lugano, Switzerland. I relocated from Australia so that I can truly dedicate my time to European weddings and couples who want to have the benefit of a native English-speaking photographer that understands their style and approach.

WHAT IS YOUR PHOTOGRAPHY STYLE?

Documentary with a fashion influence. I love to create a personal connection with my clients as this allows me to get to know them, their family and, in turn, capture the event from the inside, like a guest with a camera.

WHAT IS YOUR APPROACH TO THE DAY?

My approach is calm, relaxed and non-obtrusive. Whenever the moment calls for it, I may step in and gently guide the shots when necessary but otherwise I'll be flowing with you all.

HOW MANY PHOTOS WILL WE RECEIVE?

You will receive on average around 60-80 photographs per hour of coverage.

HOW WILL I RECEIVE MY PHOTOS?

In the week following your wedding, you will receive a select number of preview photos offering a sneak peek into the collection to come. Four to six weeks later, your complete wedding gallery will be delivered via a beautiful, interactive online gallery—a perfect occasion to cozy up with a glass of wine and relive the joy of your special day. Your online gallery provides the convenience of downloading all images in both high and web resolution. As part of your package, you'll also enjoy 1-year of cloud storage to securely preserve your wedding images, with the option to extend as needed.

CAN I PRINT MY PHOTOS?

Photos truly come to life when printed, and I encourage you to do so. Order prints conveniently through your personalised online gallery or a reputable print shop. Opt for good ink on high-quality paper for lasting results.

DO YOU HAVE ANY VENDORS YOU RECOMMEND?

Absolutely. If you're getting married in Italy, I have a great network of recommendations for you depending on where you're getting married, so please let me know when we speak and I'll let you know more about how we can help.

DO YOU PHOTOGRAPH ELOPEMENTS?

Absolutely. I'm based in Europe and happy to fly wherever the story takes me. If you're considering a destination wedding, let me know and I'll create a tailored proposal for you.

DO YOU PHOTOGRAPH ELOPEMENTS?

If you and your partner are considering an intimate celebration with just your closest loved ones and prefer to forgo a grander ceremony, I would be honoured to capture your event. We can create a package for you starting with 3 hours of coverage from €2,900.

NEXT STEPS

Working a seasonal calendar across Europe, I recommend reaching out asap to ensure availability on your date.

From the date of your enquiry, I'll hold your date for two weeks, after which it'll be first come first served!

If you're already sold and keen to discuss things further, email me back and let me know and I'll suggest some times for a video call. To secure your wedding date, a 30% non-refundable booking fee and a signed contract are required.

Looking forward to meeting you,
